LET STARR DO HIS JOB

Spin doctors in Washington have apparently performed successful surgery on President Clinton's reputation—his approval ratings are soaring with the angels. But Special Prosecutor Kenneth Starr's numbers are down in the cellar.

The steady beat of the president's people, all saying the same thing, has had the obviously desired effect—it's distracted the attention of the American public away from questions of Clintonian wrongdoing, and onto a special prosecutor supposedly running amuck.

Clinton's people loudly proclaim Starr really is overstepping his bounds in his investigations of the president. If he really were, there would be grounds for dismissal by the judges who appointed Starr. Or Attorney General Janet Reno, or the president himself could.

But nobody's moving to dismiss the special prosecutor. They're just making lots of noise on television about him.

Fortunately, the one person whose attention should be on questions of presidential wrongdoing, is. Starr is simply doing his job.

The major issue is not whether Clinton had affairs with Monica Lewinsky, Paula Jones or anyone else—though that certainly is a significant moral matter that he may be forced to address, if the allegations turn out to be true.

The major issue is whether the president obstructed justice. Whether he committed perjury and urged others to do the same. And whether evidence was tampered with, and witnesses bought off. That is a significant legal issue that could drive him out of the White House.

We must, of course, presume Clinton is innocent, unless he is proven guilty. He deserves that constitutional privilege as much as any American.

It's also wrong, lacking proof, to paint Kenneth Starr as the guilty party. He's just doing his job. Maybe his investigation will come to nothing. Maybe not. But let him take as much time as he needs to do that job and discern the truth.

The nation deserves truth. Not spin.

SALUTING THE ORGANIZERS OF THE THYAGARAJA FESTIVAL

HON. LOUIS STOKES

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 17, 1998

Mr. STOKES. Mr. Speaker, it gives me great pleasure to recognize the dedicated work of an extraordinary group of citizens in my Congressional District. For the past twenty years, the Music Department at Cleveland

State University and other volunteers under the direction of Dr. T. Temple Tuttle, have organized and hosted the Thyagaraja Festival. This festival has brought musicians from Asia, Africa, Europe, and Australia to perform in the City of Cleveland and have their traditional art forms, cultures, and values celebrated and honored by political and educational leaders. The event also offers attendees the opportunity to experience an array of truly exceptional cultural performances. Audiences have come from as far as Alaska to enjoy these festivities.

In its 21st year, over one hundred volunteers assisted with food preparation and arrangements for the festival. The festival will highlight the Chief Guest, Sri Mukherjee, and the great vocalist, T.N. Seshagopalan will be honored as "Sangeetha Rathnakara," a high honorific meaning "Jewel of a Performer." In addition to the scheduled performers, who will come from India this year, 70 to 100 amateur performers are expected, and a crowd of over two thousand.

Mr. Speaker, the Thyagaraja Festival stands as a recognized commitment to international unity and an appreciation for the beauty of cultural diversity and artistic expression. Again, I salute the organizers of the 1998 Thyagaraja Festival for creating an opportunity for the City of Cleveland and our great nation to participate in an event whose ultimate objective is to increase multi-cultural awareness and acceptance, and secure global peace.

TRIBUTE TO WOMEN IN BUSINESS

HON. DANNY K. DAVIS

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 17, 1998

Mr. DAVIS of Illinois. Mr. Speaker, as we celebrate Women's History Month, I rise today to pay tribute to women in business and to express pride in the fact that the women of Chicago and Cook County have benefited from the successful programs of the Women's Business Development Center.

Based in Chicago, the Women's Business Development Center serves 2,000 women annually with counseling, training, financial assistance, certification, procurement and advocacy on behalf of women's economic empowerment. The programs of the Chicago-based center are effective, successful and benefit diverse women. These centers service an array of women and their families, including self-employment for former welfare recipients, business development, expansion and job creation.

The work of the Women's Business Development Center and other women's business assistance centers are essential to strengthening the economy of this Nation by fostering women's business development nationally.

The WBDC and women's business assistance centers are funded by the United States SBA office of Women's Business Ownership and by private and public sector support. They help support a diverse and growing population of new and emerging job-creating women entrepreneurs, including women in transition off welfare.

These centers are unique in that they provide long-term training, involve public and private partnerships for their support, and can be measured on the basis of their economic impact. These centers have served tens of thousands of women.

The women's business assistance centers serve our constituencies by offering quality programs to effectively leverage scarce public and private resources into successful job creation, new business start-ups, and business expansion. Most of them, even after they are no longer eligible for Federal funding, continue to be sustained by the private sector.

These centers are committed to economic self-sufficiency programs that are as diverse as the women served; women of color, women on public assistance, women seeking self-employment, rural and urban women, and women starting home-based businesses. Therefore, it is appropriate that we pause to recognize the great work of the Women's Business Development Center and women's business assistance centers throughout the country.

I take special note of the work of Hedy Ratner and Carol Dougal of the Women's Business Development Center, Counselor Pope of the Cosmopolitan Chamber of Commerce, Connie Evans, Director of the Women's Self-Employment Project, Karen Yarbrough, proprietor of Hathaway Insurance, Deborah M. Sawyer, founder Environmental Design International and other outstanding women in the City of Chicago and the state of Illinois, who provide immeasurable help and support to other women seeking to go into business.

HONORING ALEXANDRIA HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL TEAM ON WINNING THE 4A STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

HON. BOB RILEY

OF ALABAMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 17, 1998

Mr. RILEY. Mr. Speaker, Paul "Bear" Bryant, the legendary football coach at the University of Alabama, used a now famous quote to inspire his football team. "If you believe in yourself and have dedication and pride—and never quit, you'll be a winner. The price of victory is high but so are the rewards." Well, the Alexandria High School Football Team of Alexandria, Alabama took Coach Bryant's words to heart as they worked, practiced, and sacrificed throughout their season to be the best that they could be. It was this dedication and desire that enabled the Alexandria High School Football team to win the 4A State Championship on December 12, 1997.

While their victory deserves to be recognized, what is more impressive is that this victory marked their second state football title in three years. In addition, this team ended their season with an impressive 13–1 record.

Over the course of the season, Mr. Speaker, the 51 players of this team bonded into a well-knit family, creating a strong following not only within the high school itself, but also throughout the small town of Alexandria. In fact, this team was such an inspiration to the community that well wishers converged on the stadium as early as 3:00 p.m. (nearly four hours before the kickoff) just to find seats. Such loyal fans are normally found only on college campuses, and I believe that through such a strong following, the players and
